

Lead-Based Paint Obligations of Landlord

Landlord acknowledges the following obligations, which shall be completed before the tenant is obligated under any contract to lease the Property. There is no obligation of Landlord to conduct any evaluation or reduction activities.

1. Landlord shall provide the required lead warning statement set forth on the Lead-Based Paint Disclosure form.
2. Landlord shall provide the tenant with the EPA-approved lead hazard information pamphlet "Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home".
3. Landlord shall disclose to the tenant and the real estate licensee(s) the presence of any known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the Property being leased. Landlord shall also disclose any additional information available to Landlord concerning the known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards, such as the basis for the determination that lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards exist, the location of the lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards, and the condition of the painted surfaces.
4. Landlord shall disclose to each real estate licensee the existence of any available records or reports. Landlord shall also provide the tenant with any records or reports available to Landlord pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the Property being leased. This requirement includes records and reports regarding common areas. This requirement also includes records and reports regarding other residential dwellings in multifamily target housing, provided that such information is part of an evaluation or reduction of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the building as a whole. If no such records or reports are available, Landlord shall so indicate.
5. Landlord must sign and date the Lead-Based Paint Disclosure, certifying to the accuracy of Landlord's statements, to the best of Landlord's knowledge.

If any of the disclosure activities identified above occurs after the tenant has provided an offer to lease the Property, Landlord shall complete the required disclosure activities prior to accepting the tenant's offer and allow the tenant an opportunity to review the information and possibly amend the offer.

Landlord is required to retain a copy of the completed Lead-Based Paint Disclosure for 3 years from the commencement of the leasing period.

Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and/or Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Tenants must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention.
